

A timeline of the CEIRP

In 2003, the IATSE Local 891 Retirement Committee, in conjunction with their consultant, undertook a search for a comprehensive group registered retirement savings plan for their members. A total of 28 proposals from various investment service providers were reviewed, with Great-West Life being awarded the plan.

This process culminated with the Jan. 1, 2004 launch of the "IATSE Local 891 Retirement Savings Program." The plan was designed with two components: a registered retirement savings plan and a non-registered savings plan.
